

150 Hermitage Road, Cranley

Residential Subdivision Development Opportunity

The site is located on the corner of Hermitage Road and Tor Street, Cranley and contains a land area of 20.29 hectares.

It is located in close vicinity to the Baillie Hendersen Hospital which is the site for the new Toowoomba Hospital development, estimated cost $1 billion. It is also near the new Range Crossing the commercial development planned for Hermitage Road and Mort Street and its Southern boundary adjoins the "Palm Lakes" retirement village resort.

The land has two residential Zones under the Toowoomba Regional Town Planning Scheme. Firstly, a section on the southern boundary adjoining "Palm Lakes" is zoned "Low Density Residential" - "General Precinct" and secondly, the balance and bulk of the land is zoned "Rural Residential 4,000 square metres, minimum."

The land is elevated at the rear, southern portion, and drops significantly to Hermitage Road. The rear and elevated parts of the land have panoramic views to the north.

A sewer main has also been constructed along the western boundary and there is a water main in Greenwattle Street and a trunk water
