

Gatton, 110 Old College Road

Investor's Gem in Gatton

Commercial opportunities like this don't come along often. Located in the thriving Southeast Queensland region, Gatton has become a key growth area—making this a strategic choice for savvy investors.

This property presents a rare chance to secure a large commercial holding with an established income stream and further development potential.

Set on a generous 7,039m² block, the site offers excellent access for trucks, machinery, and larger vehicles.

It's fully fenced for security and includes substantial perimeter fencing that generates additional income through signage exposure.

Its prominent position captures thousands of passing vehicles daily, providing exceptional visibility at the entrance to the Gatton township.

Currently, the property is leased to four high-quality, reliable tenants with a strong and consistent annual turnover.

With underutilised space still available, there's further upside for future development or
