Tweed Heads South is part of one of the fastest-growing regions in Australia, benefitting from rapid population growth, significant infrastructure investment, and growing demand for well-located commercial assets. Continued upgrades to local amenities, road networks, and nearby retail centres support long-term capital growth and strengthen the appeal of land banking in this tightly held area.

This site is ready to go for those in the industry —whether you're looking to own and operate, or secure a set-and-forget investment with reliable returns.

The area is one of the fastest-growing regions in Australia, with ongoing infrastructure upgrades and increasing demand for quality commercial sites —ideal for long-term capital growth or land banking.

This property is being sold via an Expression of Interest campaign, closing Thursday 26th June, unless sold prior.
