require this.

Due for completion in December this year these parcels of land are what Bowen has been crying out for.

The site is located within the heavy farming region of Bowen and would suit any farm service industry in addition to being only a ten minute drive to Abbott Point which is fast becoming Bowen's major employer and requires a wide range of industrial service industries to support its expansion.

Build and base your business here, or buy and build a premises to rent out to new business coming to Bowen.
