Looking for a large rural block to build your new home? Why not this one?

Priced to sell! This approx. 29ha block is ideal. This block backs onto National Park.

Imagine driving up your new driveway surrounded by lush greenery and finding your beautiful new home at the end or simply clear the block and use it for a hobby farm, growing one of the many crops that thrive here in the Wet Tropics.

The allotment is a short distance from Tully with its road & rail infrastructure and is also only a short drive to Murray Upper Falls. It's a fantastic location if you want acreage close to town.
