Positioned on one of Russell Island's sought-after elevated pockets, this 95% cleared block offers an exceptional opportunity to build your dream home or island getaway. Sitting proudly at a high elevation, the land enjoys cooling breezes and potential scenic outlooks, all while being just minutes from the popular Wahine Drive boat ramp – perfect for boating enthusiasts and those who love the water.

The property comes with a stamped, approved building plan, saving you time and money and fast-tracking your build. With essential services already available – including town water, power, and NBN internet – you can start planning your island lifestyle today.

Set in a peaceful and well-established area, this block offers the perfect balance of privacy, elevation, and convenience.
