

St Helens, 16 Quail Street

Unrivalled Investment Opportunity

Centrally located, this golden opportunity is calling your name. Generous in proportions, this level residential building block measures 4652m² in size and is the ideal location for further development (STCA). Situated right in the centre of town and within an easy walk to all the amenities that St Helens has to offer, this block is ready to develop now.

Whether you are looking to build a substantial family home, or add a development opportunity to your investment portfolio, this property is only limited by your imagination (STCA).

St Helens is the largest town on the East Coast of Tasmania and offers the ideal base to explore the region. Whether you are looking to enjoy the beautiful Bay of Fires, bush walk at the Blue Tier or explore the St Helens Mountain bike trail network, there is something here for everyone. And this property welcomes the ideal opportunity to become a part of the action.
