

St Marys, Lot 1/221 Irish Town Road

Country living with a grand view - surprisingly still available

Nestled in the surrounding countryside of the majestic St Patricks Head, is this lifestyle block with a lovely north-easterly view to the St Patricks Head peak. With complete fences, direct road access, a power pole close by, and a clearing ideally suited to a house site (STCA), this block could be just the spot you've been waiting for.

The block is blessed with permanent spring-water flowing through the picturesque Margison Creek, which is also home to platypus and trout. This completes the rare (and highly sought-after) combination of easy access, sunny cleared flat ground for building, some undulating natural bush and permanent water that many people look for in a bush block. This is a very pretty piece of land and will delight the senses when you walk the block and start imagining your new future. All this is just five minutes from the centre of St Marys.

Steeped in history and recognised as a haven for people seeking an alternate lifestyle, St
