for adult children, guests, or extended family-offering the feel of a separate 'wing' of the home.

The spacious kitchen is well-appointed with a new oven, new electric cooktop, and dishwasher, making it perfect for everyday living or entertaining. Security screens throughout the home provide added peace of mind.

Outdoor living is a true highlight, with a fabulous covered entertaining area ideal for gatherings, and a separate pergola perfectly positioned to take in the sensational elevated views. The double lock-up garage with remote control provides secure parking, while an additional side carport offers space for a third vehicle or trailer. A shade sail across the front of the property provides further covered parking for two more cars, and there is ample space on the driveway to accommodate a boat, trailer, or caravan. A garden shed on each side of the property completes the picture, adding practical storage for tools and equipment.

This home is ideally suited to growing families or those seeking a spacious, flexible layout in a premium location. Surrounded by quality homes and close to schools, shops, parks, and public transport, 24 Brighton Court combines convenience, comfort, and lifestyle in one outstanding package.

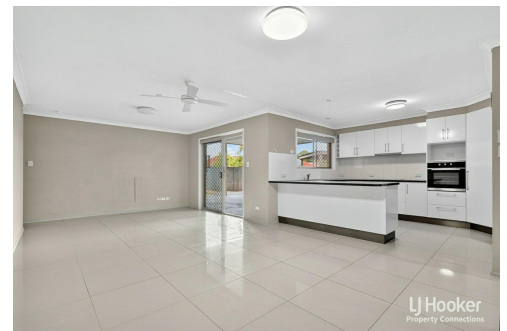

This is a rare opportunity to secure a quality home in an elevated, tightly held enclave of Albany Creek. Inspections are highly recommended.
