Situated 25 minutes away from the city, lies this beautifully presented, fully furnished, recently renovated country cottage. Oozing charm and character it is a home where once you walk in from a long day, you will not want to leave. On the practical side it is fully insulated and fully double glazed and the section is maintained for you.

The farmhouse style kitchen has great quality appliances, plenty of storage space and more than adequate bench space. Its easy to picture a chicken in the oven, winter vegetables roasting away with fresh herbs from the garden scenting the whole room (and a red wine in hand) This leads to the living area of the home where there is a floor mounted heat pump to keep the chill at bay. Kick back and relax on the comfy couch and indulge in some reading or television. There is also a wee dining table with a great view, so sit around and enjoy dinner together.

Serenity exists in the bedroom and a restful nights sleep is ensured with a very comfortable bed and the most charming bay window with cushions. The bathroom like the rest of the home is tasteful and modern whilst also retaining charm.

Internet is included as apart of the rent
