This freshly updated three bedroom, one bathroom home in Australind offers comfortable family living with space to relax both inside and out. The home has been freshly painted and features new carpets and LED lighting throughout, creating a light and modern feel.

The property includes two separate living areas, with split system air conditioning in the main living and the primary bedroom, which also has direct access to the rear yard. The functional U-shaped kitchen flows easily to the living areas, while the large backyard and covered rear patio are perfect for entertaining. A large lock-up shed and side access provide excellent storage and parking options.

Conveniently located close to Clifton Park Primary School, the Collie River, Leschenault Estuary, Bunbury Golf Club, and Australind Shopping Centre.

Please note the reticulation system is not operating and may not be repaired.
