

Bruce, 152/140 Thynne Street

Spacious Living

This one bedroom apartment has a floor plan that has been designed to maximise space and convenience with a generous living space, flooded with natural light and a two-way bathroom. The kitchen shares similar design features, with ample storage, large bench top and a free flowing design out onto both the living area and private courtyard.

The Eclipse complex is perfectly positioned for you to take advantage of your surroundings and explore the best of what Canberra has to offer. Walking distance to the Australian Institute of Sport, University of Canberra, local cafes and shops you have all your local amenity at your finger tips. Belconnen, Gungahlin and Canberra City Town Centre are just a short drive away, and you can hop on Gungahlin Drive to take you south side in no time.

Features include:

- Dishwasher and electric cooking
- Open plan living

Suburb Snapshot

Bruce is a suburb of the Belconnen district of Canberra. The suburb was gazetted on 6 June 1968 in recognition of Viscount Stanley Melbourne Bruce (1883-1967), the eighth Prime Minister of Australia and the first Chancellor of the Australian National University. Canberra Stadium is the home of the Canberra Raiders rugby league and Brumbies rugby union sides, and occasionally hosts national and international sporting events.

Many of the streets in Bruce are named after people and places associated with Australian tertiary education.
