Inspiring Bruce Rickard Design - North East Aspect - Commanding Water Views

The coveted north east aspect of "Treetops" ensures that an abundance of winter sun is captured while minimising heat in summer. The 4 bedroom home offers quite distinct zones on easily accessible different levels as well as a completely separate pavilion that all flow effortlessly to the courtyard and feature swimming pool. It works in harmony with family living and entertaining both on intimate and grand scales. Clever and inspiring architecture sees a wonderful balance of open spaces and private retreats.

- Main living pavilion opens out to covered balcony
- Timber kitchen with gas cooking and dining area encompassing NE views
- Stunning large lounge room with gas fireplace
- 4 bedrooms all with built ins and views
- 2 bathrooms
- Feature swimming pool
- Cottage Point is a unique destination in the serene Kur-ring-gai Chase National Park
- The locale is home to its own motor yacht club, Cottage Point Kiosk and famed Cottage Point Inn
