Central Dunedin living is easily imaginable in this light and bright three bedroom character home that will certainly appeal to those working/studying in the City. Here's a great chance to secure something light and bright with a modern bathroom, easy to use kitchen, a low maintenance section and modern decor throughout whilst retaining some of the stunning period features this home was build with! You will also be able to enjoy the afternoons in the sunny back garden. Approximately a short 15 minute walk to the Octagon, or make use of nearby public transport and you can have access to all the local cafes and
