

11 Boothman Street, Echuca

Just Love It

The eye-catching decor is matched by the fine attention to detail when the renovation was completed. The attraction is in the finishes - high spec bathroom, timber finish floors, customized cabinetry inclusive of dining/entertaining meeting place and air conditioning.

Externally offers just as many treats. You're greeted by an undercover entrance pergola, which flows to an expansive backyard area perfectly highlighted by a timber entertainment deck, perfect with summer on the horizon.

Adding additional value is a low maintenance but generous yard space with a large and handy garden sheds. The carport offers convenient internal access and there is a separate built-in laundry.

The home was built with customized extras which are generally not offered on other homes in the area.
