70 Cecil Street, Gordon

Life Style, Space, Convenience...

Offering expansive and uninterrupted views over the Gordon Golf Course, this charming character home is located in one of Gordon's most sought-after streets. With 71m (approx.) golf course frontage, this large, near level land with a wide street frontage this family home offers everything you need on the best spot in this enviable street.

Behind the front door lies a modern family home characterised by statement timber floors and spacious and sundrenched family living areas.

The impressive hallway opens to the oversized formal lounge set to the front of the home with a sunny 'sit-in' bay window and large windows overlooking the golf course. The gorgeous open plan gourmet kitchen/dining is the heart of this house and contains a beautiful Caesarstone island and bench tops with stunning porcelain sinks, a feature freestanding 'Falcon' gas oven, sleek integrated fridge and a food preparation cabinet with large pantry that can be cleverly hidden away when guests arrive.

A cozy and relaxing living area adjoins the kitchen with large character windows overlooking the beautiful large back yard. The family living and dining areas open to a magnificent entertainer's balcony that overlooks the golf course, perfect for alfresco dining.
