This modest sized home is only two bedrooms yet boasts a large family living area, large kitchen, a hidden study room, a separate conservatory overlooking the garden, two toilets and a massive workshop split into two sections.

There is loads of room for parking with a big driveway that connects to the workshop. This home is different from others and will make a great little home that is also walking distance from the Train Station and Town Centre.

Located moments away from Transport, Schools, Child Care, local shops, Parklands, and playground.
