

10/18 De Burgh Street, Lyneham

Ideal Living!

Offering a sleek and modern lifestyle, this impressive top-floor two-bedroom apartment combines stylish interiors, abundant natural light and beautiful views across the treetops towards Black Mountain.

The spacious open-plan living and dining area is framed by full-length glass windows, creating a bright and inviting space throughout the day. The contemporary kitchen is beautifully appointed with stone benchtops, soft-close drawers and custom joinery, providing both style and functionality.

The main bedroom features its own ensuite and walk-in robe, while the second bedroom includes a built-in robe.

A standout feature of the apartment is the large, full-length balcony, accessible from the main living areas and bedrooms. It creates a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living while maintaining a sense of privacy and offering a peaceful outlook.

Ideally positioned in a central location with easy access to Canberra's key amenities, this beautifully presented apartment offers a comfortable and stylish lifestyle with plenty to enjoy.

Suburb Snapshot

Lyneham is a suburb of Canberra, Australia in the North Canberra district. It is named after Sir William Lyne, premier of the Australian state of New South Wales from 1899 to 1901. The suburb name was gazetted in 1928, but development did not commence until 1958. The streets of Lyneham are named after artists and people associated with the development of early Canberra.
