

Matamata, 64 Rawhiti Ave

Easy living central location

This practical 3-bedroom home includes two double bedrooms and one single, providing flexible living options. The spacious living area flows into a bright conservatory, offering additional space for relaxation or hobbies. A private covered area just outside the back door adds to the convenience, creating a sheltered spot for outdoor enjoyment.

Located in a prime spot, the property is just a short walk to the town center and virtually across the road from the medical center, ensuring easy access to essential services.

Currently equipped with a gas fire.

Please note that the property offers off-street parking for one vehicle; however, there is no garage available.
