Downstairs the real action commences with a large kitchen for cooking for your family and guests is a real winner with storage galore and good quality appliances. The three living spaces boast absolute light and sun just shines in. These spacious areas will make your house the place to entertain. The living spaces lead directly to the private and peaceful outdoor entertain spaces and are nestled amongst serene garden spaces.

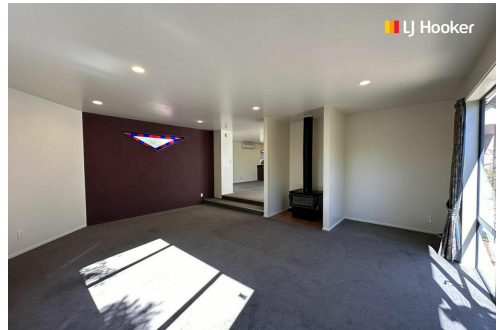

Add to all of this a fenced section, a double internal access garage, an enviable location and total privacy, this home really does have it all and you need to view to appreciate everything on offer!
