Narrabundah is an established garden suburb, valued for its proximity to Civic, Lake Burley Griffin, and vibrant local centres such as Manuka and the Kingston Foreshore.

Residents particularly value Narrabundah's environment including its open spaces, parks, playgrounds, bushland landscapes, as well as its strong sense of community and diversity.

History

'Narrabundah' is a Ngunnawal word meaning 'bird of prey', celebrated in the sculpture in the park opposite the Narrabundah shops.

Street names in Narrabundah are inspired by indigenous culture, as well as white explorers and pioneers

Parks are widespread, with "Rocky Knoll" or "Rocky Knob" park in upper Narrabundah and its panoramic view over Canberra a favourite.
