Location Location

Solid brick and tile in a desirable location.

This pleasant 3-bedroom home is situated a stone throw from sought after schooling at Rosehill College, a short drive from the motorway, and an even shorter walk to the dairy. There is a large backyard for the children with fruit trees and a spacious garage.

The home features open plan living, three bedrooms, and a spacious backyard with a single garage/workshop. This property is located close to Papakura Town Centre, a short commute to motorway access and community facilities. All levels of schooling in the area. If location is what you are after this has it all with the children able to walk to school.
