QUINTESSENTIAL TROPICAL LIVING

This uniquely designed residence is a wonderful example of quintessential tropical living.

Framed by twin carports, the impressive portico entrance opens to reveal an elevated rainforest-style boardwalk off which all the rooms of the home emanate.

The three bedrooms and study are arranged within two separate pavilions, positioned either side of the central boardwalk. Each pavilion also incorporates a central bathroom, providing an ensuite-style level of convenience and privacy.

Continue along the boardwalk and the home opens into a generous covered outdoor entertaining area. From here, the kitchen/dining and lounge spaces sit on either side, seamlessly connected through stylish glass bi-fold doors.

With all living areas positioned on a single level, the home has been designed to take full advantage of the enviable Port Douglas climate
