

1/34 Watson Street, Turner

SPECIAL OFFER —TWO WEEKS FREE RENT!

Sign a lease before 30 November 2026 and receive two weeks of rent free, provided you commit to a minimum tenancy period of six months.

Perfectly positioned in one of Turner's most sought-after streets, this charming ground-floor apartment offers a peaceful, leafy setting with the convenience of inner-city living.

Step inside to a bright and welcoming one-bedroom home designed for comfortable, low-maintenance living. The full-sized kitchen offers plenty of space for cooking and storage, while the bathroom features a practical shower and bath combination.

Enjoy year-round comfort with reverse-cycle heating and cooling, along with the added convenience of an allocated car space and storage cage.

Surrounded by established greenery, the apartment provides a quiet retreat while remaining within easy reach of Canberra City, the light rail, ANU, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities.

Suburb Snapshot:

Turner is a leafy early Canberra suburb, close to Canberra City and the Australian National University (located in the suburb of Acton).

Turner is named after Sir George Turner, a Federalist, legislator and one of the founders of the Australian Constitution. He was a Premier of Victoria, and later Federal Treasurer under prime ministers Barton, Deakin and Reid. Streets in Turner are mostly named after writers, legislators and pioneers.
