This beautifully presented family home has been renovated to an extremely high standard. Cleverly designed with two spacious wings and a central open plan living and dining area, this home suits everyone and would be perfect for a group of professionals or a family. The dining area flows to a large rear courtyard for you to enjoy entertaining with family and friends, or just relax on the front deck, sharing a glass of wine whilst watching the sunsets over the Waitakere Ranges.

As you walk through this amazing home you will experience the extra thick plush carpet. The new wing of the house offers the master bedroom, two bedrooms, an office and a bathroom. The original wing offers a full family bathroom, another double bedroom with sliding doors to the outside and the bonus of another separate living room.
