

Ainslie, 4 Agnew Street

Spend a Night at the Museum!

Step back in time, and into a remarkable future when you purchase this amazing Ainslie home. Boasting not one, not two but three income-generating residences nestled on a single plot, this home offers a unique proposition of triple returns against a singular set of expenditures.

At the heart of it all lies 'The Museum,' the principal residence. Constructed in the early 1960s of sturdy full brick (Canberra Reds), this home stands as a testament to a bygone era. Experience its irresistible charm, so delightfully retro, adorned with high ceilings, ornate cornices, captivating wallpaper, vintage light fixtures, and interesting feature tiles.

Comprising of four spacious bedrooms and showcasing the epitome of 1970s style in its kitchen and bathroom, the home has been meticulously maintained for your utmost enjoyment.
