OPTIONS , ROOM , MULTI-GENERATIONAL LIVING the list goes on.

5brms, 2.5 bathrooms, multiple living areas inside and outside, the house that just keeps giving. Read on Positioned directly opposite a peaceful nature reserve and only moments from the walking and cycling paths that wrap around Yerrabi Lake, 41 Diamond Street offers a lifestyle that so many families are searching for but rarely find.

Morning walks, afternoon bike rides, and the calming outlook of greenery become part of everyday life here.

Set across three thoughtfully designed levels, this substantial home offers remarkable flexibility for growing families, multi-generational living, blended families, or those needing space for hobbies, a home business, or a teenage retreat. Multiple living areas and a floorplan that can easily adapt to a fifth bedroom mean this is a home that evolves as your family does.

For those who appreciate the outdoors just as much as the indoors, the gardens here are something truly special. Meticulously maintained and supported by a Toro automatic sprinkler system, this is a property for someone who notices the detail, loves to potter, and values the pride of a beautifully kept garden. Wide balconies and a generous patio with gas-piped BBQ and infrared heating create inviting spaces to relax or entertain all year round.

Inside, the home continues to impress. A gourmet kitchen featuring two Bosch ovens and induction cooking will delight those who love to cook and host. Storage is abundant, including a double garage fitted with built-in cupboards and workspace.

The main bedroom is a true retreat - positioned to capture elevated views and designed very much like a private suite. Complete with its own study, an exceptional walk-in robe, and a luxurious ensuite, it offers parents a space to truly unwind.

A 2008 Housing Industry Association finalist, this is a home where quality, care, and thoughtful design are evident at every turn. The time spent here by its owners is reflected in how beautifully the property has been maintained and presented.

This is not simply a large home - it's a versatile, warm, and deeply loved one, ready to welcome its next chapter.
