Of the many standout features of the home is the very generous and secure back yard complete with covered timber deck, side access and garden shed.

A spacious wraparound kitchen includes an electric cooktop, oven, dishwasher, pantry, plenty of cupboard space and easy-clean bench tops.

With 2.7m ceilings and full-length windows, both the living room and the segregated family room/meals area provide a stunning feeling of space and contemporary comfort.

The upper level includes the three large bedrooms, ensuite, main bathroom, separate toilet and the study/multipurpose area at the top of the stairs.

The main bedroom includes a walk-through wardrobe with mirrored sliding doors while bedrooms two and three have built-in wardrobes with mirrored sliding doors. All bedrooms have ceiling fans and sliding door access to the balcony.

But wait there's more; the home also includes a private front courtyard, tiled entry with under stair storage, zoned radiant ceiling heating, electric hot water, and UV tinting to various windows.

Improvements throughout the home include refreshed paintwork, updated carpets and window furnishings, a newly retiled balcony, a recently replaced electric hot water system, and professionally retiled shower bases with new screens.

There are no body corporate fees. This is a self-managed site maintained by the residents (three dwellings) which include the water rates and building insurance.

If you are looking at the next phase of your property journey, please take the time to inspect. You will not be disappointed with this standout three bedroom + study home.
