

213 & 213A Tomahawk Road, Andersons Bay

Contemporary Coastal Oasis Minutes From The City

Privately positioned up a secluded driveway, this exceptional property offers a rare combination of privacy, space and breathtaking coastal outlooks. Completed in 2015, the beautifully considered residence spans approximately 242m² across a single level, delivering refined modern living with effortless comfort.

Designed with both flexibility and lifestyle in mind, the home features four generous bedrooms and two well-appointed bathrooms, complemented by internal access to a double garage. Thoughtfully configured living areas create two distinct zones that can operate independently or open seamlessly into one expansive space, perfect for entertaining or accommodating family and guests.

Striking design elements are balanced with intelligent practicality throughout, creating a home that is as functional as it is visually impressive.

Expansive windows frame remarkable views from almost every room, capturing sweeping vistas across Tomahawk Beach, the lagoon and the hills beyond. Just a short stroll to the beach, the location offers the ultimate coastal lifestyle, ideal for morning walks with the family dog, family time and relaxed days by the water.

Multiple outdoor living areas extend the home's living spaces, providing the perfect setting for entertaining, enjoying long summer
