

525 Stebonheath Road, Andrews Farm

Starting Out, Slowing Down or Investing

This quality home with 2 living spaces and flexible garaging/entertaining areas is sure to tick lots of boxes for the new owner. Add to this all the extras and a location that's close to local shopping, parks, schools and public transport, plus the express way that connects you directly to Adelaide and the Barossa Valley, then it's one that you must consider.

Built in 2013 this modern well-maintained home that's set on a generous low maintenance allotment of approx. 420sqm offers off-street parking, plus a double garage with internal and drive through access to the covered outside entertaining, that doubles as an extra carport with space for more cars or your special toys!

So, if you are looking for a sound investment that's ready for its next tenants, or you are starting out, looking for your first home or slowing down and downsizing, you need to consider this one.... it's better than the rest!

Features Include:

- Modern open plan living, opening onto generous lawn that's perfect for the kids and pets to play.
