

Aspley, 14 Purdy Street

Charming Split-Level Home in Elevated Aspley Location

Occupying an elevated position in one of Aspley's most desirable pockets, this charming and deceptively large split-level home will immediately impress you with its architectural style, practical floorplan and traditional sturdiness. The home is positioned on a sizeable 615sqm block and captures some wonderful suburban and mountain views from the back living areas and deck.

The floorplan includes a sunny front veranda, central entrance, spacious living/dining area, a neat and tidy kitchen, 2 versatile multi-purpose rooms (perfect as an office and children's playroom), 3 x bedrooms, a family bathroom and a laundry with 2nd toilet. The standout feature is a huge, covered deck which extends out seamlessly from the kitchen, overlooks the backyard and takes in some lovely views. The home has rich polished hardwood floors, neutral paintwork, air-conditioning, and so many windows that fill the home with natural light.
