two sides to capture natural light, cooling breezes and the surrounding outlook. A granite dining table with eight chairs and marble coffee table further complement the home's quality finishes.

All four bedrooms are generously proportioned, with built-in robes to three bedrooms and a walk-in robe and ensuite to the main. Thoughtful accessibility features, including wider doorways, wheelchair-friendly access to one bedroom and the main bathroom, along with concrete surrounds outside, add to the home's comfort and ease of living.

Downstairs offers fantastic versatility, with a generous tiled area featuring a bathroom and kitchenette with sink, cupboards and stove, plus plenty of room for living, dining and sleeping zones. A separate storage room adds even more practicality.

Outside, the veranda provides the perfect place to relax or entertain while enjoying the beautiful elevated outlook and spectacular Atherton sunsets.
