The View That Launched a Thousand Ships - Incredible Northerly Outlook from a Super Cool Home

Gazing north across the waterfront from Careel Bay to Palm Beach, this Pittwater retreat delivers views that launched a thousand ships; it's a world-class vista in one of Avalon's most desirable coastal pockets. Exceptionally well-designed for those who love to entertain, there's a timeless sense of style throughout the home that's unmistakable; the sweeping layout opens entirely to massive decks on sunny days, while the protected position and north aspect keep it comfortable all year-round. Complete with a fully self contained lower level and great off street parking.

The contemporary architectural lines and generously-scaled floorplan create a clean canvas for your own personal tastes; white-themed interiors are framed by stacker doors to the decks and blanketed by the polished warmth of Tasman Oak floors, with an impressive fireplace as the focal point. The main floor is fully devoted to living and entertaining with a second lounge, deck and four bedrooms on the lower level; the primary suite opens to the deck and includes a large walk-in robe and ensuite. The third level is separately accessed and is
