Ocean Outlooks, Native Bushland, Enduring Character

Suspended between the bush and the sea, this welcoming home feels a world away, with every room drawing the eye towards either native greenery or the ocean beyond. A sculptural fireplace anchors the living and dining spaces, drawing people together as flames flicker against sweeping headland views, with the moon casting a silver ribbon across the water after dusk. Set across 973sqm, the five-bedroom layout offers flexibility for extended families, dual living or guest accommodation, while broad decks, a Finnish sauna and an inclinator add to the home's enduring warmth, character and quiet soul. Peaceful yet connected, Avalon Beach, the village, golf course and schools are just moments away.
