

29 Anderson Street, Bairnsdale

CHARACTER 3 BEDROOM HOME WITH REAR YARD ACCESS

This well-kept 1960s weatherboard home offers solid bones, comfortable living and a great location. In very good condition for its age, it presents a fantastic opportunity for first home buyers, investors or those looking for a home they can gradually update over time. Inside, the home features three bedrooms, all with built-in robes and ceiling fans. The open plan lounge, kitchen and dining area sits at the heart of the home. The kitchen remains true to its era but has been well maintained. The bathroom is also original, with a shower over bath, and is neat and functional. A solid fuel heater and split system air conditioner in the lounge keeps the home comfortable all year around. The property has seen several key updates over the years including restumping approximately 10 years ago and both internal and external pain in recent years. Outside, the property includes an old-school shed with a concrete floor and convenient access from Railway Street for those who want to store a boat or caravan.. A solid home in great condition with plenty of potential, all set in a great location.
