

3 Galbraith Close, Banks

Open Letter from the Owners

3 Gabraith Close has been our family home for almost 18 years; however, the time has come for a tree change as we enjoy our retirement. If only we could take the house with us.

Our home is like a TARDIS, fitting a family with two teenagers growing into a family of 4 adults and all the needs and belongings that entails. We found the vast wall space made decorating easy and the open plan living provided ample space to enjoy family life. With many fond memories, from trick or treating, to 18th birthdays, to becoming the go to hosting place for large family gatherings, it is now time we say farewell to our home.

In the quiet summer evenings, we found there is nothing better than having dinner on the deck watching the sun set over the Brindabellas. Living so close to Rob Roy, we have a variety of animal life coming to visit which results in a magnificent bird-based serenade as you relax outside.

We are at the base of a walking track and a fire trail which makes walking a beloved dog easy and enjoyable. With a hill on our doorstep, the children masterfully learnt hillstarts early and gave them confidence as an L plater on hills.
