that makes this home so special. The double-storey layout offers plenty of space for everyone, with bright, open living areas that flow seamlessly to the outdoors. Spend lazy weekends by the resort style pool, entertain family and friends under the covered alfresco area, or simply unwind while enjoying the leafy surrounds.

The beautifully updated kitchen with Caesarstone benchtops sits at the heart of the home - a wonderful place to cook, connect, and create memories. Four spacious bedrooms and three bathrooms, and a choice of living areas provide comfort and flexibility for modern family living.

The oversized double garage offers internal access, an automatic door, extra off-street parking, and convenient drive-through access for your caravan or boat.

Set within manicured, landscaped gardens, this solid brick and tile home offers peace, privacy, and a genuine sense of belonging.

Located within easy reach of Pittwater, Mona Vale Beach, Warriewood Square, local golf courses, quality schools, and express transport to the city, this home truly captures the essence of Bayview living.

Homes that have been loved and cared for like this are a rare find. Don't miss the chance to make it your own. Enquire today and experience the special charm of this Bayview gem for yourself.
