

6 Bel-Air Crescent, Beaumaris

Cutest beach-house ever

With sand still between your toes and your togs still wet from your swim or surf, the short walk home from the beach will give you just enough time to decide whether it's coffee or cocktail time. At only 270m to the beach, it'll be no effort to take the short walk whenever the mood takes you, or when the surf is just right.

The calming energy of this home makes it a truly welcoming haven the second you open the front door to reveal the classic Tasmanian Oak flooring and classic beach decor. The open plan family zone is central to the home and leads to the two bedrooms, family bathroom and out to the deck. With glorious ocean views from the kitchen, living room, deck and second bedroom, the wow factor will never be lost on you or your guests.

Outside you'll be spell-bound by the clear ocean views from your covered deck, and it will be the scene of many hours of relaxation and whale spotting. The 4x4m studio opens a world of opportunities as an art or yoga space, games room or rumpus room for overflow guests to enjoy.

With the Surfside restaurant just 150m from your front door, you'll soon be one of the locals enjoying great meals and coffee right on your doorstep.

Beaumaris has been a favourite holiday destination for generations of Tasmanians thanks to its proximity to surf beaches, Scamander and St Helens. The East Coast offers an enviable lifestyle for anyone who
