

24 Thornhill Close, Bega

STUNNING BUSH SETTING

Up high on Black Range where the winters are warmer and the summers are cooler, 24 Thornhill Close is a haven where the beauty of nature and comfortable rural living harmoniously exist. Just under 9km from the heart of Bega and only 16km from the pristine coastline, this stunning 8.8-acre property with forest and beautifully landscaped garden offers a truly special retreat to call home.

The immaculate single-level home blends effortlessly into its surroundings, featuring four spacious bedrooms, two bathrooms, and warm timber floors that echo the natural textures outside. The north facing, open plan design invites sunlight and fresh air to flow through two generous living areas, while the parents' retreat off the main bedroom provides a quiet sanctuary or the flexibility to accommodate extended family in a self-contained space.

Step outside to discover the rich brown soil in which the two orchards and vegetable gardens have thrived and enjoy gazing out over the garden for breathtaking views of the valley and distant mountain ranges. For those who love and appreciate our native birds and wildlife, this is truly a special place, where every day you are greeted by something different - maybe a wallaby, a family of wrens, numerous species visiting the birdbath or a lyrebird display as you eat breakfast. For bird enthusiasts, 104 species have been recorded on
