

31 Peden Street, Bega

Diamond in the Rough!

Brimming with character and opportunity, 31 Peden Street, Bega, presents an exciting chance to restore and transform a classic Victorian cottage into something truly special.

Featuring the timeless appeal of a traditional front veranda, this two-bedroom home offers a wonderful foundation for renovators, investors or buyers looking to create a home with their own personal touch. While the property requires considerable work, the possibilities are exciting, particularly with an approved Development Application (DA) for substantial improvements and an extension, providing a valuable head start for those looking to bring their vision to life.

The existing home comprises two bedrooms, a bathroom, sunroom, living and dining areas, kitchen and laundry.

Set on a 437sqm corner block, the property also features a good-sized backyard, complete with a shed and workshop.

Conveniently located within walking distance of schools, supermarkets, healthcare services, shops, parks, walking tracks, cafes and restaurants, this property offers a fantastic opportunity in a sought-after central Bega location.
