

4 King Street, Binalong Bay

Family home in iconic Binalong Bay

Dreaming of a home in Binalong Bay with beautiful views that's just a quick stroll to the beach? Well, here is the answer to your search. With views of the iconic Bay of Fires coastline from many of the rooms and the front deck of this home, 4 King St will offer a special "welcome home" every time you turn into the driveway. This property offers you all you'll need, with built in robes in two bedroom and a walk-through wardrobe in the master, on its way to the ensuite. The views of the bay will wow you from the master bedroom, while peaceful garden views are enjoyed from the other two bedrooms. The dining room has space for a large table, while it has its own wood heater and bay views for ambience and style. The large lounge room offers a variety of options for sitting spaces for relaxation or gazing at the views.

The rumpus room in the garden could be utilised for a variety of purposes and is built over the huge underground water tank that has afforded the home a luxurious water reserve.

The peaceful rear garden has an inviting private entertaining area, shady trees and room for veggie beds. The front deck captures lovely views up the coast to The Gardens and beyond and could be the scene of many days enjoying the wonderful east coast weather and beautiful scenery.
