

Unit 2/19 Opal Drive, Blackmans Bay

2 1 1

A Lovely Little Gem in heart of Blackmans Bay

There's something wonderfully easy about a home that is neat, comfortable and well positioned — and 2/19 Opal Drive certainly offers just that.

Freshly updated and beautifully cared for, this charming two-bedroom unit is a lovely option for those looking to take their first step into the property market, simplify life with a little less maintenance, or add a well-presented property to their investment portfolio.

Inside, both bedrooms offer built-in wardrobes, while the reverse-cycle air conditioning keeps the home comfortable throughout the seasons. The flooring through the living area, kitchen and bathroom has also been replaced within the past month, adding a fresh and modern touch to an already very tidy home.

For investors, there's plenty to like here. A recent rental appraisal of $560–$580 per week provides an attractive potential return, with the property's low-maintenance nature helping to make it an appealing investment from both a rental and long-term ownership perspective. At the upper end of the appraisal, this equates to approximately $30,160 in potential gross rental income per year,
