Enjoying some water views from your property is one of the bonuses of this home but it also has many more appealing features. The ultra modern, renovated kitchen offers stainless steel appliances and ample bench, as well as cupboard space. The adjoining spacious open plan living area allows for enough room for the whole family to hangout. But, if you need even more room, there's another living area that offers you the option for another family room, formal dining or kids play area.

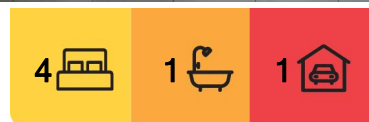

The home features four large bedrooms. One bedroom has a separate entrance, perfect for a teens retreat.

The other bonus is the roomy bathroom which has also been renovated to perfection with a long vanity, two sinks, a big shower and bathtub.

Water views can also be enjoyed from the many arched windows which have been added to the home creating a light and breezy atmosphere, oh wait, that comes from the sea.
