

54 Poole Street, Bowen

Charming home on a 1,134m² block

Situated in the town centre, this charming home offers a well presented exterior but inside you will find tongue and groove walls, high ceilings and traditional fretwork. Full of possibilities, the home has a designated dining area, a serviceable kitchen and extra space to expand on the lounge room.

Three bedrooms, a neat and tidy bathroom and additional play area or study all combines to create a comfortable family home. The front yard is fully fenced. There is good side access to the huge backyard where you could build a big shed, put in a pool or just leave as it is for a great space for the kids and pets to play.
