This main bedroom has a wonderfully generous walk-in robe and its very large windows bring to you the beauty of the bush and the majesty of the perfect blue sea lapping in the private rocky bays that edge the back garden of Coral Cove apartments. The main bedroom has its own separate balcony for private sunning or solitary moments with a good book. This bedroom also has direct access to the main balcony.

Second and third bedrooms have own balconies with the third one enjoying the beauty of the Cape Edgecumbe bush with its rock formations and glimpses to Horseshoe Bay itself.

The main living space is open plan. It is light filled and flows out to the magic of the largest of the four balconies with its very ample space for lounging and lazy lunches. All bedrooms have robes, good storage space and your apartment has split system air-conditioning.

Cool ceramic tiling throughout is vital to the easy seaside lifestyle you crave.

There is real convenience in having the secure carpark in the basement.

Additional visitor parks outside the secure area are also under cover in the same basement area.

The resort includes The Cove restaurant or you can take advantage of the Horseshoe Bay Cafe only about 100 metres from your front door.

A special feature of Coral Cove is A excellent pool area with spa and extensive lawns plus a large pool facing , shared entertainment area in the building underneath, adjacent to the restaurant. Great spot to have you mates around and have a beer..

This unit would make a very nice permanent residence. We recommend this as your perfect opportunity. Please contact TONY DOYLE to arrange an inspection .
