

164 Cornish Street, Broken Hill

Style Inside. Serious Space Outside

This is one of those homes that gets the balance right - beautifully renovated where it matters, brilliantly practical where it counts, and with an impressive amount of space outside to make everyday living considerably easier.

Inside, the 3 bedroom home delivers a stunning open plan living zone with a contemporary kitchen at its heart along with the feature of an exposed brick ornate fireplace. The bedrooms are equally well considered, with 2 walk in robes and a built in robe plus a stylish dual access bathroom, creating a layout that feels polished, functional and refreshingly uncomplicated.

Then there's outside, a substantial 20x30 shed, double steel frame carport, additional carports and storage provide an exceptional amount of room for vehicles, tools, projects and all the things you'd rather not squeeze into the house. Add a dedicated outdoor entertaining area, and the external development is every bit as useful as the renovation is impressive.

Beautifully finished inside. Exceptionally well set up outside and absolutely ready to enjoy.
