

534 Chapple Street, Broken Hill

Where Character Takes Centre Stage

Dating back to circa 1910, this impressive double fronted bluestone and brick residence captures the elegance and craftsmanship of its era, with soaring 12 foot pressed tin ceilings creating an immediate sense of scale and distinction. Set on approximately 930m², the home offers the generous proportions, original charm and enduring style rarely found in modern residences. With its striking street presence and beautifully preserved character, this is a home that will appeal to those who appreciate tradition, authenticity and the opportunity to own something truly special.
