FIND.

Set in the heart of Bruce, this large, safe and quiet top-floor, picturesque, east-facing apartment offers a smart buying opportunity with strong returns just moments from the University of Canberra.

With two bedrooms, two bathrooms and two secure car spaces, this is a large and highly functional configuration in one of Canberra's most reliable high-demand rental pockets.

Privately positioned on the top floor, it combines natural light, practical design, and great energy efficiency in a park land setting.

LOVE.

The spacious open-plan living and dining area flows to a spacious east-facing balcony, welcoming beautiful morning light and overlooking natural surrounds that create an inviting everyday living space.

Both bedrooms are generously sized, with the master featuring its own ensuite and walk-through wardrobe for privacy and flexibility. The second bathroom services the additional bedroom and guests, making the layout ideal for shared living or student accommodation.

Two secure car spaces and lock up for bikes add further value, particularly in a suburb where parking is tightly held. Whether purchasing for your own university student or securing a high-demand rental, the scale and layout make financial sense.

LIVE.

Positioned within walking distance to the University of Canberra and close to the Australian Institute of Sport, North Canberra Hospital and Belconnen Town Centre, this is an easily accessible vibrant location built around education, health and employment.

For parents, it offers security, proximity and the ability to reliably build equity rather than pay rent elsewhere.

It also delivers consistent tenant demand in a suburb known for resilience and strong occupancy rates.

Low maintenance. High convenience. Smart positioning. Come and look, you will love it.
