

6 Diamond Head Drive, Budgewoi

Architectural entertainer in prime waterfront position

Positioned on the tranquil waterfront in Budgewoi, this architecturally designed residence delivers a striking blend of sophistication, space and lifestyle. Set on a substantial 948sqm block, the home is perfectly oriented to capture uninterrupted views across the reserve and out to the channel, with its key living zones and bedrooms all enjoying the ever-changing natural outlook. The home was also recognised as a finalist in the Master Builders Association awards, further highlighting the quality of its design and construction.

Designed for seamless indoor-outdoor living, the home centres around a gourmet kitchen complete with a large island bench and a bespoke integrated dining space crafted from timber salvaged from the old Morpeth Bridge. Large openings connect to a stunning outdoor setting featuring a pool, outdoor BBQ kitchen and beautifully appointed alfresco spaces —an ideal environment for entertaining or relaxing in complete privacy.

Generous accommodation further enhances the home's appeal, offering four spacious bedrooms and five beautifully appointed bathrooms. The considered floorplan provides excellent separation between living and private zones, delivering both flexibility and privacy
