living and dining area, anchored by a chef's kitchen designed for both everyday ease and entertaining. Stone benchtops wrap generously around the workspace, complemented by abundant cabinetry, a 900mm oven, gas cooktop, dishwasher and a well sized walk in pantry.

The rear wing of the home is cleverly separated by a door, creating a quiet, private zone ideal for infants, teenagers or multigenerational living. Here, three enormous bedrooms each equivalent to or larger than many master suites reflect the owners' thoughtful design modifications during construction. All rooms feature built in robes and share convenient access to a well appointed main bathroom with a bathtub, large vanity and glass panelled shower.

Outdoors, the home truly comes alive as an entertainer's haven. A large decked alfresco overlooks synthetic lawn and an impressive firepit area framed by raised seating and garden beds, forming a space that invites gatherings all year round. The side sliding gate provides ample room for additional vehicles or future improvements, while the opposite side of the home offers a fenced grassed area perfect for separating children or pets, and with potential to accommodate a pool STCA.

Homes of this scale, presentation and versatility are highly sought after.
